

some favorite locations

In County Kerry. Somewhere seaside like
Dingle or the lakes and forests of Killarney
National park or West and East Cork.
Kinsale and Ballycotton for example.

How about the south East? Waterford and Dungarvan are lovely all year round.

Urban Bliss? Dublin or Galway are always vibrant and full of life. Then there is West Clare and the Burren for dramatic landscape.

So lakeside, seaside, mountains or forest. Castle, Manor house, Country B&B, we've got you covered.

Be true to your hearts! Let us create the destination wedding you want, where you want with who you really want.

frequently asked questions

CAN WE GET MARRIED IN A CHURCH?

If you are currently a member of the religion of the church you want to get married in, then normally, yes. Each religion will have it's own requirements for a marriage within the church that will have to be fulfilled. We do have some non denominational churches available.

DO I NEED TO BE A RESIDENT OF IRELAND AT ALL?

You do not need to be a resident of Ireland or any counties in Ireland. As long as you have the appropriate documentation and meet the criteria you can marry in Ireland.

HOW DO I GET A MARRIAGE CERTIFICATE? DO YOU TAKE CARE OF THAT?

To have a legal ceremony in Ireland, you need to appear in person at the local Registrar's office with the appropriate documents. Since Marriage certificates are legal documents, the licence and certificate will be issued directly by them at an additional fee of €220.

DO I NEED WITNESSES? WILL YOU PROVIDE THEM IF I DO?

For a legal marriage you do need 2 witnesses and we can provide them if you plan for an elopement with just the two of you. With a wedding blessing, you do not need any witnesses.

WILL OUR MARRIAGE BE LEGAL AT HOME?

Irish marriages and marriage certificates are recognized in North America and European countries. For other countries, please check with your local authorities.

WHERE CAN WE HAVE OUR CEREMONY?

That is a loaded question! The short answer is that certain celebrants will marry people in different locations. A catholic ceremony will only happen in a Catholic Church, a state Registrar will only marry you in an approved location, other legal celebrants will marry you in outdoor locations attached to a building and a wedding blessing {non legal} can be anywhere you can imagine!

frequently asked questions cont'd

WHAT KIND OF FLOWERS DO WE GET?

We will ask you to send us a photo of your preferred bouquet and boutonniere. We will do our very best to have our florist match it.

WHAT TYPE OF PHOTOGRAPHY WILL WE GET?

You will get a professional wedding photographer. You will be able to see their photography style and website prior to your wedding and choose who you like. After your wedding you will get up to 100 digital images, fully edited and ready for print from the photographer once edited.

CAN I GET A HAIR AND MAKEUP TRIAL?

Sure! There will be an extra expense paid to the hairdresser or makeup artist but if you have time, absolutely!

HOW CAN WE BOOK?

Email us at annie@elopetoireland.com and we'll talk over your vision, issue a contract, arrange for a deposit and get planning!

WHAT ARE THE BEST PAYMENT METHODS?

What ever works best for you! We can do Electronic Funds Transfer, Bank transfer {same thing really!} or Paypal.

HOW FAR IN ADVANCE DO I NEED TO PLAN MY ELOPEMENT?

For a blessing, give us at least a month. For a legal wedding, you have to give 3 months notice to the Registrar so 3 months and a week or more if you have time.

CAN I CHOOSE MY OFFICIANT AND OTHER ELOPEMENT VENDORS?

Where possible we will try to give you options of vendors to choose from but we do have reputable and reasonably priced professionals in all locations that we work in around the country. By preparing our suppliers this way, you get everything you want, without having to pay for the things that you don't.

Remember, you are not alone! At some point during the wedding planning process (or for some, even before then!) every bride-to-be thought maybe it would be easier to elope!

And a lot of them actually do it. We know because we help them. And we make it easy.
